500,000 MEALS IN CHICAGO

9/11 Day is hosting large-scale meal packs in 24 cities in observance of the September 11 National Day of Service and Remembrance. Nationwide, more than 30,000 volunteers will come together to pack 9 million meals for individuals and families facing food insecurity.

In Chicago, more than 1,700 volunteers will come together to pack 500,000 meals! The meals will be donated to and distributed by Greater Chicago Food Depository, directly supporting the local community.

Together, we're turning a day of tragedy into a day of doing good.

WHAT TO EXPECT AT THE MEAL PACK

Volunteers join a two-hour shift at a reserved table, teaming up in groups of 12 to pack, seal, and box thousands of meals for people in need. Each shift starts with a short and meaningful program, including a moment of silence and a performance of "America the Beautiful." From there, the energy rises as a live DJ kicks off the music and your team jumps into action. It's fast-paced, fun, and deeply rewarding — a chance to make a real impact together.
